

Inside the BPO boom.

THE HINDU

India
Melb

News Update Service

Friday, March 26, 2004 : 1535 Hrs

Print Editions: The Hindu • Business Line • The Sportstar • Frontline •

Sections <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Top Stories • National • International • Regional • Business • Sport • Elections • Index • Photo Gallery The Hindu Print Edition <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Front Page • National • Tamil Nadu • Andhra Pradesh • Karnataka • Kerala • Delhi • Other States • International • Opinion • Business • Sport • Miscellaneous • Index <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Life • Magazine • Literary Review • Metro Plus • Business • Education Plus • Open Page • Book Review • SciTech • Entertainment • Young World • Property Plus • Quest • Folio 	Business US a major hub for global money laundering: IIF New Delhi, Mar 26 (PTI) The US is a major hub for international money laundering with its banks accounting for 50 per cent of the one trillion dollar worth of such deals, an Indian economic think-tank has said. "The size of the money laundering worldwide through the banking sector is estimated to be between 500 billion and one trillion dollars annually with about half of that circulated through US banks," Indian Institute of Finance Director J D Agarwal told the Asia Pacific Bankers Congress held in Manila, according to a release from the institute. "US is a major hub for international money laundering", he said attributing the problem to "too much" freedom in that country. Addressing over 300 delegates representing 11 banks from over 23 countries, he said excess freedom in Switzerland, some tax haven countries and too much controls in countries like Russia added to the menace of global money laundering. "Electronic transfers greatly facilitated and magnified the size and dimension of international money laundering where banks are directly involved," he said. It was imperative to have broad international cooperation between law enforcement and regulatory agencies for finding the source of illegal proceeds so as to trace the funding for specific criminal activities. Talking about the measures taken in India to tackle the menace, Agarwal said the Government had already issued anti- money laundering guidelines before introduction of a Bill in this regard and an RBI panel had also recommended rules for improving procedures and policies. <hr/> Business	Cities <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Pondic India Ade Who he the stru
---	---	---

Sections: Top Stories | National | International | Regional | Business | Sport | Pondicherry | Elections | Index
 The Hindu Group: Home | About Us | Copyright | Contacts | Subscription
 Group Sites: The Hindu | Business Line | Business Line News Update | The Sportstar | Frontline | The Hindu eBooks | Folio

Copyright © 2004, The Hindu. Republication or redissemination of the contents of this screen are expressly prohibited without written consent of The Hindu
